MSL Captive Solution's Phillip Giles recognized in Captive International's Cayman Captive Awards

Reinsurance Specialist of the Year

Phil Giles, Managing Director of MSL Captive Solutions has been recognized as Reinsurance Specialist of the Year in Captive International Magazine's annual Cayman Captive Awards.

The awards are based on feedback received from the captive industry, and in particular from readers of Captive International. The winners and highly commended in each category were selected based on responses to a comprehensive online questionnaire, as well as phone interviews with select contacts. Respondents were asked to name up to three firms or individuals, depending on the question, that they have experience of working with based on their competence, expertise and innovation. Individuals and companies were ranked out of 10, with respondents providing the reasoning behind their votes.

"It's an amazing honor to receive recognition from peers and colleagues throughout our specialized industry," said Giles. "I view this as a team win for MSL Captive Solutions. This is really an affirmation of our entire team doing everything necessary to deliver on the expectations of our clients and uphold the highest standards set within our industry. I am very privileged to work alongside the top technical experts in the medical stop loss captive industry.

Giles won the same award in 2019. Earlier this year, he received Highly Commended recognition in Captive International's U.S. Awards and was also named to Captive Review Magazine's 2021 Power 50 listing. Ranked number 29, it was his fourth appearance and highest ranking on the annual listing.
